Who is eligible?	All Fall 2017 transfer students who have been accepted to UCI (including international students who have been studying in California colleges).	If you need an F-1 visa to study at UC Irvine, your I-20 documentation will be processed by the UCI International Center based on your “My Admissions” information in your admissions application. The start date of your I-20 can be changed to August 5th for attendance in Session II Transfer Edge once your enrollment form and payment are received and processed by our office. Follow the instructions given in your UCI Admissions correspondence.  It is the student’s responsibility to complete the necessary steps to obtain a visa with UC Irvine.
How many students will participate?	While this pathway is not limited, we estimate about 100 participants in Session I and 150 in Summer Session II.	While this pathway is not limited, we estimate about 15 participants.
What courses will I take?	A 2-unit Transfer Edge Seminar (Social Sciences 89) is required during the first summer session you choose to attend; concurrently, most students will enroll in one additional course and an elective.  Please keep in mind that a full load for a summer session is 6 - 8 units. For example, in Session I you might take Social Sciences 89 and one elective course (typically 4 units). In Summer Session II you might enroll in two elective courses (typically 4 units each)  This is a full load of courses in each Summer Session.  Students who prefer to only enroll in Summer Session II will take Social Sciences 89 and one elective course (typically 4 units).  Note: Attendance requirements will be outlined in the Social Sciences 89 syllabus; typically a minimum of 4 events is required.	A 2-unit Transfer Edge Seminar (Social Sciences 89)  PLUS  One additional UCI credit course (most courses are 4 units)  AND  A 2-unit Academic English Reading and Vocabulary course (optional, though highly recommended)

If you've already filed a 2016-2017 FAFSA, you must make sure UCI is listed, school code = 001314.	Program registration due June 16.
What will I do when I'm not in class?	All students will participate in a range of exciting co-curricular activities as part of the required course, Social Sciences 89. Residential students will also have housing and community activities with other Transfer Edge students, their resident advisor, and Transfer Edge staff. Events can be viewed on the Events page.
When will I get advising and sign up for my Fall classes?	Each school holds summer advising sessions (held in June or July) to help new transfer students prepare their fall schedules and enroll in classes. You will receive information by mail regarding how to enroll in one of your school's advising sessions. Some of these advising sessions will be held on the same day as Transfer Success (see below).
How does Transfer Success or Transfer SPOP apply to me?	Transfer Success and Transfer SPOP are optional UCI orientation programs. The Transfer orientations are different than the 6-week Transfer Edge. You must sign up and register for the Transfer orientations separately: http://www.orientation.uci.edu/
