

UCI INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SESSION

ACADEMIC HONESTY AND STUDENT CONDUCT AGREEMENT

It is essential that all members of the academic community subscribe to the ideal of academic honesty and integrity and accept individual responsibility for their work.

Academic honesty and integrity refer to the values of fairness, respect, and accountability in your scholastic pursuits. All students of the University of California, Irvine have a responsibility to follow the rules and guidelines established by instructors regarding classroom behavior, assignments and exams, and to accept responsibility for his or her own work.

Summer Session students are expected to:

- Refrain from disruptive behavior, such as talking, laughing, texting, or utilizing your phone during lecture
- Remain quiet and respectful during class, speaking only when called upon
- Regularly attend courses, arriving on-time or early ready to participate
- Engage in conversation, questions and discussion
- Attend “Office Hours” for additional help

Actions associated with academic dishonesty include cheating, lying, plagiarizing, forging, stealing, and collusion. Academic dishonesty is unacceptable and will not be tolerated at the University of California, Irvine. Cheating, forgery, dishonest conduct, plagiarism, and collusion in dishonest activities erode the University’s educational, research, and social roles. Students who allegedly violate the University’s standards of conduct are subject to the discretion of the instructor and department in which the violation occurred.

Students accused of academic misconduct may be subject to the following:

- Receive no-credit or a Failing grade (F) in their course(s)
- Dismissal from the course, resulting a failing grade (F) in their course(s)
- Dismissal from the Summer Session program at the student’s expense, resulting in the termination of their I-20 and a failing grade (F) in their course(s)

I, _____ (NAME OF STUDENT) , understand and agree that my behavior must be in accordance with UCI Academic Honesty and Student Conduct requirements for participation in the 2024 International Summer Session program. I understand that my I-20 may be terminated and I may also receive a failing grade in my course(s) should I violate the terms of this agreement or partake in any form of academic misconduct during the Summer Session program.
